

Tour to Italy brings cousins together for first time

Mr. & Mrs. Francis Squeglia, along with their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. & Mrs. Jim Rutushni of West Haven, departed on a three-week Perrillo tour of Italy in September. For two weeks, they visited Rome, Sorrento, Capri, Florence and Venice. They also went to the Vatican and saw the ruins of Pompei.

On the third week they went for three days to visit the Northern part of Italy where Mrs. Squeglia's parents were born. The city was Millesimo which is near the town of Savona. She was united with cousins and relatives that got acquainted for the first time. The scenery was beautiful and the weather was a little cooler. Their winters are very cold, similar to Canada.

On the fourth day, they left to visit Mr. Squeglia's relatives in the town of Caserta, which is in the province of Caizzo. He was united with his cousin Stephen who is noted for making the best pizza in town. They stayed with his cousin Caroline who is a psychiatrist and she made sure they toured all of the interesting sites. Mr. Squeglia's cousin Antoinette cooked some wonderful meals for them, and her husband Antonio, along with the family were very sad to see them leave. The Squeglia's and Rutushni's had a memorable trip and hope to return someday.
